Bruce Marshall Keeps Audience Interested

That the Catholic writer is in no way circumscribed by limitations in the choice of plot or characters, was the opinion expressed by Bruce Marshall, noted Scotch novelist, during his lecture on the "Catholic novel" delivered before a capacity audience in Austin hall last Monday night.

The author of many novels, including such best sellers as "Father Malachy's Miracle" and "The World, the Flesh and Father Smith" in Marshall emphasized the complete freedom of the Catholic writer to treat of any subject he wishes, providing "the characters are portrayed against the backdrop of eternity."

A convert, Marshall attributes his conversion to the influence of the late Robert Hugh Benson, whom he acclaimed as one of the outstanding Catholic writers of the century. Among others Evalyn Vaughn Francois Maurice, and Graham Greene were hailed by the speaker as Catholic novelists who write Catholic novels. The large audience was particularly urged to read the forthcoming Graham Greene novel "The Heart of the Matter."

Disagreeing with those who deplore the difficulties of Catholic writers because of religious ideals, the visiting lecturer noted however, that American and British authors who must portray a way of life foreign to most of their readers, face difficulties not met by the Catholic writers of Spain, Italy and France, where "the warp and woof of sacred tapestry is known to every one."

The task of the Catholic writer in the present world turmoil is according to Mr. Marshall, the fostering of "the practice of spirituality by the majority of Christians." Only one other solution to the present problems is possible, he said and "that is force."

An engaging and interesting speaker, the Scottish authors remarks were liberally sprinkled with humor anecdotes and asides. In listing his impressions of America, he mentioned the conveniences of centrally heated hotels the inconveniences of signless railroad stations, his dubious appraisal of the American radio, and the marked generosity of the American people as the most striking aspects of life here in the United States.

At the conclusion of the lecture Mr. Marshall graciously answered many questions collected from among the audience.

While on the campus, the creator of Father Malachy and Father Smith visited the college library and autographed an anthology of Catholic writers in which a sketch of his life and works appear.

150 Michaelmen Make Dean List

Chemistry Club Elects Activities Committee

The largest number of students to attend this year turned out at the most recent meeting of the activities committee. A three man committee was named consisting of: Chemistry Club to elects a new ac-

John Gallant, Edward Hewitt and Donald Fitzmaurice, whose duty it will be to arrange for interesting pictures and visiting lecturers for future meetings.

President John Hens headed a discussion on the subject; "Science and Modern Civilization."

Other officers of the Club are: Harland Cassavant, vice president; and Paul Durkin, secretary-treasurer. The faculty moderator is Mr. Roger Kelleher. The next meeting will be at 8 o'clock on March 19 in Room 45 of College Hall and any students interested in chemistry and wishing to join the club are invited to attend.

Novice Debaters Shine In First Competition

Novice debaters of the Newman Debating Society had their first competitive debates here at St. Michael's Saturday, March 6, when they met teams from Dartmouth and the University of Vermont.

Bill Kennedy, Ed Bernard, Bob Gervais, Gene Cafarelli, Don Garety, Don Powers, Clem Ferris and John Higgins represented St. Michael's. They debated the question: "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Enact Legislation Providing for the Compulsory Arbitration of Labor Disputes in Basic Industries."

Mikemen Praised

singling out Don Powers and Jack Higgins for special honors in the way that they adapted themselves to their audience.

Although there were no decisions made, the scoring on the judge's critic sheet showed that St. Michael's would have been ahead had there been scoring. So pleased were the director, Prof. Edward Murphy and the members of the Society that the hope was expressed that there be a Freshman debate with teams competing from all the surrounding schools held at St. Michael's every year.

School Gives Dinner

After the debate, the school furnished a delicious steak dinner to all the would-be Daniel Webster in the professor's dining room.

Critics for the debates from St. Mike's were Mr. Fairbanks, Mr. Sannigan and Mr. Murphy. Senior members of the Newman Society acted as chairmen.

SAC SCHEDULES SPRING EVENTS

The Student Activities Council has released the following schedule of campus activities for the remainder of this semester. One of the primary tasks of the S. A. C. is to establish such a pattern for events so as to avoid the conflict and confusion of last-minute planning.

March 17—Sophomore Dance — Austin Hall.

March 24—Easter vacation starts

April 5—Easter vacation ends.

April 8—Booster Club movies and dance.

April 9, 10, 11—NECCS New England Regional Conference in Boston.

April Events Incentive To New Members

The Booster Club today renews its drive for membership simultaneous with the announcement by Georg (Doc) Jacobs, director of athletics, of two big sports nights in April, both to be sponsored by this organization.

Jacobs revealed that the Booster Club has on tap at Austin Hall April 8 a gaa "Sports Night," featuring the showing of several reels of film including highlights from the top gridiron classics of 1947. Also on this evening's program — open to members of the Club and their dates free of charge — is dancing and refreshments which will be served at a nominal fee.

Non-Booster Club members may attend this event only by paying admission charge for themselves and their dates Jacobs said.

The "piece-de-resistance" of the athletic year, however, is on tap for the night of April 13 at the dining hall, tentatively set to open a 8 o'clock. This will be the "Block 'M' Dinner" at which all of the athletes will be guests of the Boosters Club.

Jacobs revealed that he was angling for a prominent speaker, one who will be known to every sports-minded man on the campus. The dinner will be steak with all the trimmings. The price: $1 to all Booster Club members (strictly stag, sorry) and $2.50 to those not holding cards.

To those students unfamiliar with the club, which is new to the campus this year, it is pointed out that the membership fees go to defray the cost of sweaters for graduating lettermen and works hand in hand with the Varsity Club, in which varsity athletes hold exclusive membership.

Membership can be made by stopping in at the athletic office in Old Hall or by making application through any member of the Booster Club. Jacobs hopes to enroll 100 new members during the drive which will extend to April 13.

April 10—Boston Tributary Theater, Austin Hall.

April 13—Block "M" Banquet—Varsity Club.

April 14—Spanish Club Fiesta.

April 17—Debating with Our Lady of Elms, Austin Hall

April 18—Debate with Boston College, Austin Hall.

April 23—Freshmen Gay Nineties Dance.

April 30—French Movies, Austin Hall.

May 1—Senior "Day of Recollection."

May 7, 8, 9—Senior Weekend and Junior Prom.

May 14—French Movies, Austin Hall.

May 25—Final Exams start.

June 4—Graduation.

Silver Cup Memento Of Past Ski Jump Glory

The next time you visit the library take notice of the large silver cup on display there. You will notice that it was awarded to the ski team of St. Michael's for winning a tournament staged on this campus in 1931. We played host to such keen competition as Middlebury, Dartmouth, U. V. M. and Norwich. The tournament was held on the side slopes that are used so frequently by the students today. An outstanding difference however, was the fact that at the time there was a 65 foot jump, with a downhill slalom and cross-country run. It was chiefly the work of one man, Careton Gosselin Springfield Vt.

The days of that high-flying St. Michael's team, who met and subdued the challenge of some of the best competition in New England have long past and have for the most part been forgotten; the cup, which they so proudly won has tarnished with age and sits almost unnoticed in the college library. In addition to this cup, however, there is still on the campus a man, who at the time of that outstanding tournament was one of the state's outstanding jumpers and the big gun of the St. Michael's team. That man is none other than Father Sullivan.

There are but few students today who are aware of his past activity here at St. Mike's. In addition to his great agility on the slopes and the jumps, he was able to step out on a tennis court and trade forehand and back-hand drives with the best of them; to say nothing of his aquatic ability and his skill on a bowling alley.

So the next time you see that cup, or go tearing down a tricky slope think of Father Sullivan; a real priest a standout athlete and a great Michaelman.

Seven Students Have 95 P. C. Average

One of every five students at St. Michael's College did sufficient outstanding work during the first semester to make the dean's list. Rev. Gerald E. Dupont SSE, academic dean, reports that 150 students had maintained an average of 95 per cent or better during the first half year.

Six undergraduates and one graduate student top the list with an average of 95 per cent. For the second consecutive marking period Richard G. Lareau of Essex Junction has the highest average. Tie with him are, Richard K. Brown, Marcel J. Leblanc, David C. Marzall, Wendel H. Searles, Frank Warzocha.

The graduate student with a 95 average is Roger L. Keleher, Massachusetts Ave. Springfield, Mass. who is working for his master's degree at St. Michael's and serving as a chemistry instructor. Brown, his work completed, will be graduated in June.

Less than a point behind the leaders is Francis L. Clark of Foxboro, Mass. with 94.4.

Father Dupont said he was quite gratified at the higher marks, since only 15 per cent made the first dean's list earlier this year.

"A VICTORY FOR AETHIESM" — WHAT NEXT?

Few Supreme Court decisions evoke as much interest as do those dealing on religion and education. Few have caused as the reaction that resulted from last week's decision levying against religious instruction in public schools.

Most Catholic, Protestant and Jewish leaders are reserving comments on the Court's decision, which resulted from the protest pressing by an avowed Champain, Ill. aethiest. But a number of reactions have already been recorded.

Those who believe the highest court in our land acted justly in making its decision have called it "insurance of religious liberty" others, undecided in their minds as to how inclusive the ruling was, are comforting their followers with the statement that it "offers a challenge to the home and church to provide something vastly superior to the weak substitute attempted on released time."

No official Catholic source had commended up to the time this editorial was written. The biggest Protestant organization — the Federal Council of Churches in America — was likewise mum. Both are undoubtedly waiting for a clarification of the court's ruling.

What does this all mean? Well, several things. Under the literal interpretation of the law, it means that no religion classes of any kind can be taught in public school buildings.

It probably does not mean that "released time", whereby students are given time off from regular classes to attend religion classes in other than public schools (for example, in New York State, Catholic students attending public schools go to the Catholic schools in their neighborhood for one hour each week for a class in religion) will be prohibited. As we see it the big issue is not merely how far this ruling extends. It is — what comes next? A strong group of Protestant leaders, banded under Protestant-United, etc. are working for what they call a separation of Church and State, but are nevertheless not neglecting the fact that their prime motive is to oppose things Catholic.

The organization has accused the Catholic hierarchy of seeking a church and State union "at least at the public treasury" and has called for Myron Taylor to be recalled from the Vatican among other things.

Protestants but its leaders are powerful enough politically and it should be understood that this organization does not represent otherwise to press the offensive now that the Supreme Court has ended them the "pole position" with the "stretch run" — federal aid to education legislation — just around the next turn.

Several Supreme Court tests have ruled in favor of Catholics sharing in the benefits accorded public school children, notably last year's decision approving free bus transportation of pupils to parochial schools.

It is to be expected that last week's "victory for aetheism" as it is called by a Vermont priest will give those Un-Christian Protestant organizations and alleged aetheists an incentive to make the court change its mind about bus transportation, about hot lunch programs and to assure the Congress that federal aid to parochial schools would be a danger to the separation of Church and State.

To those who called the decision "an insurance of religious liberty", we point out that it means just the opposite. The so-called retreating "challenge to the home and church" is a laugh in most modern homes where the school dominates the child's entire day and parents more and more pass off the responsibility for the character and religious education of their children to others. It would be interesting to see how many Protestant children get regular religious instruction and how many are influenced in any way by the church.

HILL-WIND

By Dick Jakobowski

HILLWIND . . . . .
Because of the return to table service and the addition of white table cloths in the dining hall, I feel that this week's question is most obvious:

"What do you think of the new setup?"

Charlie Conway, Woonsocket, R. I.

I think the new system is an aid to digestion but the belligerent attitude of some waiters still bothers me.

Jack Daly, Foral Park, L. I.

I believe the change to be a 100 per cent improvement; it now is a more home-like means of feeding. Congratulations to the administration and the student body.

Jim Barry, Davens, Mass.

This new method eliminates waiting in line, however, I'm starving to death at breakfast. I'm a coffee hater and one glass of milk is not sufficient.

Don Stack, Pittsfield Mass.

I think the change in atmosphere was very well done. It is almost worth missing seconds.

Joe Purtil, Stonington, Conn.

The new system is far better. It eliminates wasting valuable time in line.

Ed Jadatz, Pittsfield, Mass.

It is the best thing yet that has hit St. Mike's. It really adds something.

Ralph (Edge) Edgley, Columbiaville, N. Y.

The new system saves time, eliminates confusion and makes eating more of a pleasure. Am very pleased with it.

Paul Murray, Pittsfield, Mass.

The change suits me fine . . . . . congrats to Mr. Buchan.

Jack Walsh, Jackson Hgts., L. I.

With the new set-up, you don't have to look forward to "ulcers" when you're 30.

Mike Miccolo, Schenectady, N. Y.

The surprising change is appreciated and welcomed; better service, sharp looking waiters, general no complaint. I could use a bit food continues to improve I'll have more weight.

Ed Markey, W. New York, N. J.

The new set-up looks great but, I can't afford to miss those seconds that have been cut down a bit.

Paul Boudrian, Springfield, Mass.

the dining hall less noisy and a I'm all for the system. It makes more pleasant place to eat.

Ken Hanlon, Floral Park, L. I.

The set-up now is a good deal. The hall is much quieter and one can enjoy his food. Have patience with the waiters; they work pretty hard!

Don Naples, Staten Island, N. Y.

The system is commendable, but please . . . . . more milk.

Bud Wiser, Caseville, Mich.

The food is okay; atmosphere, swell . . . . . but . . . . . can't we have music while we dine? (In some feel like dancing; in others, it's the dining halls the music makes you food.) Joke.

Five Categories Established For Those Who Would Enter

By Thomas A. Garrett, '35

During the past few years the College has reluctantly been forced to face the fact that it cannot accept all applications for admission and yet maintain the high standards of scholarship it has struggled for so many years to uphold. In the interest of those whom it has served in the past, those whom it is serving, and those whom it expects in the future, the following policy has been adopted to govern admissions:

1. Applications as received will be grouped into one of the five categories listed below. Preferential consideration will be given in alphabetical order: Group A, first; Group B, second; Group C, third; Group D, fourth; Group E, fifth.

Alumni Sponsorship

Sponsorship of an applicant in any group by an alumnus, student in session, or benefactor of the College will give applicant first consideration over others in that group.

Group A: Applications from accredited high schools that present college preparatory records meeting all entrance requirements with respect to number, distribution, and quality of units. If, after our enrollment has reached its capacity, such an application is received, an early invitation will be issued the applicant to join the next freshmen class for which he is eligible.

Group B: Applications that could not be accepted even conditionally last year because of unsatisfactory records, provided that the applicants have undertaken to strengthen their previous scholastic records by post-graduate high school courses in the meantime.

Group C: Applications from high school students who are in the last half of their senior year. Since eligibility cannot be determined until final grades and certification of graduation are received, such applications will not be acted upon until July 1.

Group D: Applications not under Group A, B, and C, from students recommended by alumni, students in session, or benefactors of the College. Students in this group must present the minimum number of acceptable entrance units for conditional admission.

July 1 Deadline

If the sponsor of such an applicant notifies the Registrar's office before the application blank is sent out, the words "Referred by" and sponsor's name are written across the face of the application so that it may be easily identified when received. Applications in this group will not be acted upon by the Admissions Committee until July 1, and only after action has been taken on all in Group C as of that date.

Group E: Applications that do not fall into any of the categories previously listed. Priority of attention will be based upon: (a) date of application, (b) number of academic units presented, and (c) quality of units. Candidates from Group E will be selected after July 1 following action on Groups C and D and will continue to be selected until enrollment is completed. Both veterans and non-veterans will be given the same consideration.

Personal Basis

2. The College realizes that to each individual the matter of his post high school training is serious and personal. Insofar as possible, the College attempts to handle every application on a personal basis. Considerable attention is given by the Admissions Committee to recommendations by those who know the applicant's aptitude and character.

However, in the best interests of the candidate, his sponsors, and the College, a realistic attitude based on facts must be maintained. The College feels that it is a disservice to its friends and certainly a disservice to the applicants themselves to accept candidates who, in the judgement of the Admissions Committee, will fail to succeed in a liberal arts college program. It is better, the college feels, to cause an initial disappointment by refusing a candidate than to accept such a student and, at the end of a term, embarrass the sponsor and the College itself by being forced to drop the student.

To the student as a person, especially if he has been a sincere and conscientious worker, it is a great disservice since it causes discouragement and calls into doubt even those talents he does possess which would afford him success in another type of training.

New York Alumni Chapter To Sponsor Communion Breakfast

President Joseph M'Berardino '42 has announced that plans are now under way for the annual Communion Breakfast of the New York Alumni Chapter. The committee in charge has extended a cordial welcome to the members of the Greater New York campus club.

The promise of at least one prominent speaker, the careful planning already begun and the evident enthusiasm among both the Alumni and Student groups give indication of a first-rate post-Easter affair.

The date is Sunday, April 4.

Holy Mass will be offered at St. Michael's church (34th St. off 9th Ave.) at 9:00 A. M.

The Breakfast will be held at the Hotel McAlpine (34th St. and Broadway) at 10:00 A. M.

The committee asks all Michaelmen and their friends to make reservations as soon as possible.

Congratulations to the officers and members of the New York Chapter for their continued efforts. They have done much to spread the name of St. Michael's College throughout Greater New York.

HOPE TO SEE YOU APRIL 4th!!

Brattleboro incident.

Rog Kelleher Sr., accompanied by wife and son, Donald, was visiting Bog, Jr., and family during the last part of February.

Thanks to Stu Anderson for his kind remembrance of the Memorial Chapel Fund. Stu is completing a work at Fordham University.

Fred Kolowich dropped in for a visit. Just out of service he's doing a little travelling before settling down to work.

We hear Father Walter Coonan has been assigned to Sacred Heart Rectory in Worcester, Mass., Father James J. Flahive to St. Mary's Rectory in Westfield, Mass., and Father Thomas Gauvreau to St. Ann's Rectory, Turner Falls, Mass.

Bob Poirier '43 who got an M. S. in chemistry last June at Akron University is taking a research position with Battelle Memorial Institute at Columbus, Ohio. He has been with Firestone since graduation. A second son, Michael Allen, was born last May 16.

Elmer Dudash '48 and Bill Mace, '47 are working in the chemistry laboratories of Harshaw Chemical Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

WANTED !!! ALUMNI NEWS

St. Michael's Alumni Prominent In Vermont Coaching Circles

The recent high school basketball tournament held at the Barre Auditorium brought to light the accomplishments of St. Michael's graduates in the Vermont coaching field. No fewer than five Alumni lead their teams through successful seasons and into tournament play.

Coach Joe Moore's '38, St. Michael's high school of Brattleboro, captured the state Class "C" title for the second successive season. Joe has directed the destinies of years which leaves him with an enviable 100% record in tournament play. The only real test given the Brattleboro club this winter was the surprising opposition afforded by Wilmington high school coached by another recent grad of Alma Mater, Vinoo Filipp; '47.

Other features of interest to the Alumni are that the Moderator of Athletics at St. Mike's High is the Rev. James Murray, '38, and the star forward is Dick Fleming Jr. whose father matriculated at the Hilltop way back in 1921.

In the Class "B" tourney, Leo Papineau's Richford high and John "Pro" Herbert's Winooski high were represented. The two clubs finally met in a consolation game and it was a nip and tuck affair right down to the line. Richford won in the last ten seconds with a successful "deperation" heave from mid-court.

Papineau's success since latching on to the State. His last year's team on with Richford has been the talk was the most highly lauded of the tournament. It was taken for granted that he would come up with another winning combination this year — which he did.

No greater compliment can be paid "Pro" than to quote one of the better coaches of the State: "He (Herbert) is far and away the best basketball coach in the State of Vermont." This is a fair expression of a general opinion shared by many coaches, sports writers and informed observers of the game. Against "A" and "B" competition this winter, "Pro" finished with a 19 and 4 record. Two of the four defeats were administered by tournament-winning St. Michael's of Montpelier and Burlington High, both of whom "Pro's" Winooski club licked in return games. Incidentally, the Winooski coach is a highly respected official of the game as well.

Branon and Birsky

St. Joseph's of Rutland and Springfield high are the two Mike-men-coached teams that entered the "A" playoffs. Barry Branon '36 directs the Saints and "Bobo" Birsky the Springfield club. Branon has been a consistent winner since going to Rutland in all sports. His previous record at Newport was every bit as good. Since enter-

Msgr. Brennan Joins Stewart and Carney

An imposing trio of Michaelmen will spearhead the spring financial campaign for the half million dollar science building which St. Michael's hopes to have ready for fall classes.

Right Rev. Msgr. Patrick C. Brennan, P. A., vicar general of the Burlington diocese, and a member of the class of '18, will head the clergy committee. Msgr. Brennan who received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from St. Michael's last June, is the ranking prelate among Michaelmen in the Vermont clergy.

Frank J. Stewart of Burlington, president of the Alumni Association and state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, will head the alumni committee. Stewart is also class of '18.

General chairman for the drive is James J. Carney, Burlington businessman and former New England OPA administrator. Although not himself a former student, Carney, as an associate trustee and the father of two students at St. Michael's, is ranked with the staunchest supporters of the college.

Alumni Aid

Announcement of the various chairmen was made this week by Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S. S. E., president of the college, at the meeting another faithful alumnus, Roger F. Keleher, '15, former president of the alumni association, pledged the support of the alumni in the Springfield, Mass., region where he founded the Connecticut Valley chapter.

While the drive is primarily centered in Vermont, appeals will be sent to all alumni, asking their aid for the "greater St. Michael's". Stewart will appoint committees in each area where there are chapters and these will work in harmony with the general drive committee.

With 756 students at present and with another 200 expected in the fall, the science facilities at the college are sorely taxed. The erection of the three story Georgian brick building will relieve congestion in Old Hall, Senior Hall and College Hall as well as provide Michaelmen with the most modern physics and biology labs.

ing the game after leaving St. Michael's, he has always been a Name maintained an excellent record as Coach in Vermont. Birsky, too, is mentor of his Home Town charges. His basketball team of two years ago is still spoken of as one of the finest ever produced in the State.

Other Alumni doing well in the sporting field are "Chuck" Sawyer principal-coach at B. F. A. in Fairfax; John Chrusciel also principal-coach at Chester high; Gene French '43 at St. Mary's in St. Albans; Willie Morris who has done much to popularize the game at Milton as successful coach of the high school and as high scoring forward on the first-rate Town team; and, finally, Bob Rounds '48 who has just signed as assistant to Branon and head-coach of baseball at Mt. St. Joe's in Rutland.

SECRETARY'S CORNER

Dear Alumnus:

In the last issue of Alumni News we spoke frankly of the shortcomings of this office. Our purpose was to eliminate or minimize them as much as possible. We further insisted that to accomplish that objective the interest and cooperation of the membership was necessary.

It's a pleasure to report that the response to our suggestions was greatly encouraging. St. Michael's has always prided herself on the spirit of her alumni and in this instance we know that it isn't just wishful thinking. From many localities and from members of practically every class letters came pouring into the office. All expressed their concern and added a word of encouragement — thanks. Some sent important bits of news about themselves or fellow Michaelmen. Others obliged by forwarding their latest change of address or, in some cases, by forwarding us of an anticipated change.

No Alumni Office can ask more than that. It is an evident sign of good-will on the part of the membership. For that reason we make bold "to go out on the limb."

Facing the Issue Squarely

St. Michael's College has grown greatly during the past two years. That development has been as wise as it has been great thanks to the foresight of the Very Reverend President and the Administration of the College. At no time has there been any serious embarrassment in the evolution from a small college to a large one. The "growing pains" generally experienced during such a transition have been almost entirely eliminated by prudent planning. Practically every office and every factor in the educative process has been overhauled and geared to a new and broader tempo without any loss of efficiency — EVERY FACTOR EXCEPT ONE! The single exception has been the Alumni Association. No one is to be blamed but everyone is asked to realize the fact and try to remedy the situation.

Too Evident Weaknesses

We limit the present consideration to two glaring weaknesses in our Alumni set-up because we believe these two can be very easily and immediately remedied.

The first of these weaknesses is our Alumni Chapters. Of the eleven chapters theoretically existing, only three are actually functioning as chapter-units. We can go even further and say that only one of these three has attempted a business meeting or a combined luncheon-business meeting during the past year. The consequences of course, have been disastrous to Alumni spirit. The reasons for such widespread deterioration of our organizational set-up are multiple:

A long time laxity in this regard which has resulted in loss of chapter-consciousness for so many individual alumnus; the lack of Chapter officers who as key-men in the area should be in constant contact with the Alumni office; and frankly, the inability of the Alumni Secretary under the present arrangement to get out on the road.

The second weakness is the Alumni Newsletter. All of us are conscious that the present Sheet is second-rate. As far as news is concerned it is even inferior to the mimeographed sheets of previous years. All that can be said in favor of it is that it's a step in the right direction. In this as in the question of Alumni Chapters the shortcomings can be easily remedied. We have mentioned them here simply to inform you that we are not blind to the deficiencies. We are confident, too, that the Alumni as a whole will share our views.

In outlining the program of business for the Spring meeting of the Executive Board these two considerations and others similar to them will occupy a place on the agenda. We are certain that before another Fall arrives the Alumni Association, its office on campus, and its projects and activities will have grown apace. A first-rate College demands first-rate activities. The Alumni Association of St. Michael's can and will give the Administration just that!

Diz Dean Takes Scoring Honors As Vermont Subdues St. Michael's

While Vermont hogged most of the glory by defeating the Knights in last Saturday's tilt at Memorial Auditorium, the Mikemen found something to cheer about in the 20 points which Dean tallied to carry off the Vermont scoring title.

For a while it seemed as if the Catamounts were going to add the scoring honors to their Green Mountain League championship. As the game opened Vermont's Pierce and Livingston were trailing Dean by nine points respectively. Throughout the first period the lead was hotter than a three alarm fire. With every man on the team feeding him, the Montpelier lad had a streak of six straight points while he pumped in 11 first markers to Dean's five.

Just before halftime Dean's margin had shrunk to one slim point but Dizzy responded with a push shot which opened up a little more daylight in the race.

Diz Takes Scoring Honors

Early in the second half, "Hammy" Livingston tossed in a set shot to draw up even with Pierce at three points behind Dean. But then Dizzy tossed in ten of the Knights next 12 points and that sewed up the scoring race. A short time later Coach Evans substituted for Pierce and Livingston and the pride of the Paper City had won the scoring race with 218 points, 12 more than Pierce's total and three more than the old St. Michael's record of 215, set last year by Ken Akey.

The game went pretty much as had been expected. Vermont's Capt. Kotlarczyk tossed in the first basket and by halftime the Catamount were sitting on a 34-21 lead. With George Henderson contributing 11 points, Vermont ran the score up to 56-26 in the first few minutes of the second half. Both coaches cleared the benches and the game ended with Dean chalking up five points to make the final count, St. Michael's 56-U. V. M. 73.

Big Bill Hits

At times the Knights were used practically an all intramural line-up of Lynch, Bransfield, Corbett and Cronin. Big Bill Bransfield drew one of the biggest hands of the night by sinking a fancy, over-the-head shot.

It was the last appearance in a St. Michael's basketball uniform for Bransfield and for Joe Brennan who played one of his best games of the year.

There was one face missing, Steve Guter the "old man" was downed by a flu bug on the night that would have climaxed a basketball career which started back in 1938. It included a captaincy last year and membership on the '39-'40 state championship team.

Freshmen With 12th Beat Kittens 45-29

By Ray Howland

Despite a rather dull performance the St. Michael's Freshman team won their 12th victory of the year at they trimmed the Kittens of Vermont University by the score of 45-29.

It was plain that this was one of those off nights that every team experiences as the Purple Frosh had a hard time finding the hoop. Big Keith Galli scored the first basket for Vermont but Hennessey and Hart came back to put the Knights in front. Baskets by Ratti and Grant put the Kittens in the lead again but two pointers by Hart, Markey, and Zitter put St. Michael's ahead for good. By the half it was 25 to 15 as the margin opened up.

After a spurt of poor shooting, Hennessey opened the second half scoring with a lay-up folowed by Wash with two quick baskets. Led by Galli and Gouger the Kittens cut the lead to nine points as the Purple led 37 to 28 but Burzenski, Hart and Krupinsky countered and St. Mikes zoomed away to their 8th consecutive victory and number 12 of the season.

Willie Hart led the scoring parade with 11 points followed by Markey and Galli with ten markers apiece.

INDEPENDENTS CLAIM TITLE

The Winooski Park Collegiates Hockey Team, through their manager, Jean P. Verneau, claim the Amateur Hockey Championship of Vermont.

The Collegiates, composed of Michaelmen, have established a name in the amateur hockey field. Their record stands at seven wins and two defeats, one by a strong Canadian Army team, last year's amateur champions of the Province of Quebec and the other by the Norwich University Horsemen, who won in a driving snowstorm.

Although losing these two, the Collegiates have scored a total of 53 goals against their opponents, giving them an average of 5.9 goals per game.

Sunday the 14th the Collegiates play the Notre Dame Hockey team of Notre Dame de Stainbridge, P. Q. at Notre Dame. This club recently won its district league playoffs.

The Collegiates are hoping for another addition in the win column. The starting lineup for the Michaelmen against the Notre Dame club will be: Center Jack O'Brien, wings Jack Conway and Jim Felone; defense Frank Young and Gerry Grace, goal Jerry Healy.

Spares: Leo Denault; Ozie LaVoie, Bill Wellington; Pau MacArthur and Jim Whitlock.

Married Vets Top Intramural League

At the half mark in the Intramural Basketball League, the Married Vets stand alone at the top of the heap with an 8 and 0 record. The Vets are closely followed by three teams, Aquinas, Old Hall A and St. James B all with 9 and 1 marks.

In the individual scoring race Walt Jortberg with 117 points is showing the way. Traffing the Aquinas hoopste by 11 points is Howie Cashman of St. Pats. with 106 points.

The second half of the league schedule will get underway on Saturday, March 13:

With sports on the Hilltop virtual standstill this seems the logical time to conduct a mortem on the just completed basketball season.

It was over three months ago that the varsity pried the lid off the b-ball campaign with a 55-36 win in a home game against the Plattsburg Teachers. Then the Knights took it on the chin three times running in road games against Clarkson, St. Lawrence and St. Anselm.

Back home again the Mikemen trounced the Albany State Teachers quintet 64-66 with Steve Guter contributing 15 points. Then in the last two games of '47, the Purple dropped a 68-37 decision to Dartmouth and whipped Middlebury 56 to 40.

Meanwhile the frosh hoopssters had astounded Vermont fans by running up an amazing 610-10 score against Burlington Business College. The freshmen continued the spree with landslide totals against Rutland Jr. and Vermont Jr. Colleges before the Middlebury frosh gave them their first close tilt, a 52 to 48 game which the Mikemen won down at Middlebury.

January A Bad Month

The varsity came back from its Christmas vacation with a tilt and four record, but the going was much tougher in January with only an upset victory over American International College interrupting a string of losses to Champlain, Williams, Siena, New Hampshire and Champlain again.

While the varsity was finding rough sledding during the first month of the new year, the frosh did little more than flex their muscles as they broke the century mark in points in their second victory over Burlington Business College. But the road jinx caught with the freshmen too and on February fourth, Clarkson frosh handed them their only loss, 48-44.

Meanwhile the varsity came with their best game of the year against Boston College. But despite the head-up play of "Peanut" Kasparovich and the rest the final score was B. C. 45-St. Michael's 41.

The Knights finally won a road game as Guter and Fitzgibbons sank last minute baskets to beat the Plattsburg teachers. Then there were two more defeats at the hands of Norwich and U. V. M. before the Knights broke into the victory column with a 52-26 win over Norwich.

In the season's last three games the Knights dropped a close one to St. Anselms, squeezed past Middlebury and fell before Vermont 75-56.

All year long the Knights had trouble winning road games and winning the close games. Nine of the varsity's 14 losses came away from home while the frosh suffered their only defeat in 13 games in a tilt played on Clarkson's court at Malone, N. Y.

At the same time the varsity lost six of the seven games decided by seven points or less.

Whatever the trouble was, hope it's settled by next year. Are we going to win them all 20 points?

Brambilla, '47

First To Work On

Boys' Town Program

The first graduate student in the recently organized boy counseling training program being conducted jointly by Boys Town and the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C., arrived at Boys Town this week to take up two semesters of study in practical field work a Father Flanagan's Boys' Home.

The student is Charles P. Brambilla, '47, of Northampton, Mass., who has completed one semester of graduate work in the new training course of its kind ever devised, was program in boy counseling, the first conceived and developed by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Edward J. Flanagan, founder and director of Boys Town; the late Most Rev. James Hugh Ryan, Archbishop of Omaha, who was formerly rector of Catholic University; and the Rev. Professor Paul H. Furfey, Ph. D., head of the Department of Sociology at the Catholic University of America.

Brambilla is a graduate of St. Michael's College, Winooski Park, Vt. and holds an A. B. degree in social science. He will remain at Boys Town for two semesters of work before returning to the Catholic University to complete the course, which leads to the degree of Master of Arts in Boy Counseling.

Mr. Brambilla will begin his studies at Boys Town by serving as a boy counselor in Building I, which houses the younger citizens of Boys Town, and will progress to other buildings where the older boys live. While at Boys Town he will also receive training in methods and functions of the welfare department, and will work with officials of the Boys Town athletic department in learning the broad aspects of recreation programs in dealing with boys.
